Indiana CANS & ANSA SuperUsers: Roles and Certification Process

To become a CANS/ANSA SuperUser (Implementation Coach):

1) Email INTCOM@iu.edu and ask to be added to the invitation list to the next Training for New SuperUsers

2) PREREQUISITE 1: current online certification for CANS and/or ANSA via the TCOM Training Website
   - Goal is a reliability score of .75 or higher

3) PREREQUISITE 2: successful completion of The CANS and ANSA Overview: Framework and Utilization course via IU Expand
   - Create IU Guest Account
   - Search course listings for "CANS," "ANSA," or "TCOM" and hit the enter key
   - Select and Enroll in The CANS and ANSA Overview: Framework and Utilization course
   - Complete all modules, quizzes (75% correct), activities, and survey to receive CEUs and certificate
   - Email certificate of completion of Overview Course to INTCOM@iu.edu

4) Participate in a Training for New CANS/ANSA SuperUsers

5) Complete, submit, and obtain Praed Foundation approval for the following small group activity worksheets via TCOM Training Website (within 2 weeks of training):
   - Write an introduction of the CANS/ANSA and TCOM (elevator speech)
   - Write 7 mini-vignettes illustrating Key TCOM Principles
   - Write a comprehensive vignette and provide ratings and rationales for items (national core items)

6) Complete and submit online certification for the CANS/ANSA (dated within the last 12 months) via TCOM Training Website (within 2 weeks of training)
   - SuperUsers/Coaches: reliability score .75 or higher on the CANS 5 -17 or ANSA

To Remain a CANS/ANSA SuperUser (Implementation Coach):

1) Maintain annual online certification for CANS and/or ANSA via the TCOM Training Website
   - Trainers: reliability score of .80 or higher (for each utilized TCOM tool)
   - SuperUsers/Coaches: reliability score .75 or higher (for each utilized TCOM tool)

2) Participate in a CANS/ANSA SuperUser 'Booster' Workshop each state fiscal year (July 1 – June 30) (http://indianacansansatraining.eventbrite.com)
   - Boosters offered monthly